

OUR AUTHORS

Yuri Berezkin is Head of American Department at the Peter the Great Museum of Anthropology and Ethnology (Kunstkamera), Russian Academy of Sciences, and Professor of European University at St Petersburg (Faculty of Anthropology). He has published more than 300 papers and several books on American Indian and Siberian mythology, Peruvian iconography, and Central Asian archaeology. During the last 15 years he has been engaged into creating the electronic database of world mythology and folklore and into the research of the areal distribution of motifs.

berezkin1@gmail.com

*

Aleksandr Gura, Professor at the Institute of Slavic Studies, Moscow. His primary research topics comprise zoofolklore and zoonyms.

avgura@mail.ru

*

Andres Kuperjanov is a researcher in the Department of Folkloristics, Estonian Literary Museum. His current research involves ethnoastronomy, tree lore and web lore.

cps@folklore.ee

*

Enn Ernits, is an Associate Professor in the Institute of Veterinary Medicine and Animal Sciences at the Estonian University of Life Sciences. His research interests include animal anatomy, history of veterinary medicine, prehistoric rock art and typology of petroglyphs.

ennernits@hotmail.ee

*

Vesselina Koleva is an astronomer at the Institute of Astronomy, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. Her research interests involve astronomical traditions in past cultures, archaeoastronomy, wooden calendars.

vkoleva@gmail.com

*

Nikolay Sivkov works in the Historical Museum of Pernik, Bulgaria, with special focus on archaeoastronomy; he is also a member of the international organisation SEAC.

nsivkov@abv.bg

*

Eve Kikas, is Professor at the Institute of Psychology, Tallinn University, and in the Faculty of Social Science and Education, University of Tartu. Her special field of research involves the impact of teaching on schoolchildren's thinking, the development of everyday, synthetic and scientific concepts, and social development of children.

eve.kikas@ut.ee

*

Mare Kõiva, is Head of the Department of Folkloristics at the Estonian Literary Museum, with her scientific focus on incantations and media, folk religion, contemporary folklore, folk healers.

mare@folklore.ee

*

Evangelos Avdikos is Head of the Department of History, Archaeology, and Social Anthropology at the University of Thessaly, Greece. Professor Avdikos teaches oral narrative and his research interests are concentrated on folktales, fables, riddles, proverbs and oral history.

avdikos@uth.gr