The caricature contest and exhibition is a gift for the 100 year anniversary of the Republic of Estonia. It is brought to you by the Estonian Humour Museum, the National Foundation of Civil Society (KYSK), and the EV100 anniversary team.

The Third International Caricature Contest titled "Jubilee – The 100th Anniversary of the Estonian Republic" was organised by Estonian Humour Society in 2018. 106 authors from 30 countries across the world submitted their work, which amounted to 370 caricatures. Out of these, 170 were considered topical and were forwarded to the jury (members: Andrus Tamm (president of the Estonian Humour Society), Estonian caricaturists Hugo Hiibus, Hardi Volmer, Eduard Tüür, Roman Matkiewicz, and foreign members Gatis Sluka (Latvia) and Arunas Vaitkus (Lithuania)). They picked out 32 best caricatures. The winners were Mojmir Mihatov (Croatia, 8,71 points), Urmas Nemvalts (Estonia, 7,57 points) and the third prize was shared between Sergei Semendyaev (Ukraine), Prit Koppel (Estonia) and Tarmo Vaarmets (Estonia; 7,29 points).

100 best works are exhibited at the caricature exhibition "Jubilee – The 100th Anniversary of the Estonian Republic".
