

Report of research visit

March 14-18, 2016

Liisi Laineste

Krakow and Lodz

The first visit of the cooperation project "Communication styles: Developing a cross-cultural theoretical and methodological framework" was held on March 14-18, during which Dr Liisi Laineste met with the Polish cooperation partners Drs Dorota Brzozowska and Wladyslaw Chlopicki, and Anna Rewis Łętkowska. The main aim was to sketch out the subsequent visit plans and lay down the detailed time schedule for the project. The project meeting was held on March 15 in Krakow.

Dr Laineste also gave two lectures:

Firstly, on the topic of communication styles entitled "Co folklor mówi nam o stylach komunikacyjnych: przypadek Estonii / What folklore tells us about communication styles: Estonian case. Język Trzeciego Tysiąclecia IX: Style komunikacyjne, Krakow, Uniwersytet Jagiellonski, Poland; 16-18 March 2016. Uniwersytet Jagiellonski (on the example of Estonian online commenting, transmission of culture-specific and borrowed memes). See <https://www.etis.ee/Portal/Publications/Display/9944e556-1a39-4c81-9ae6-844bc8b0b0f8>

Secondly, on cultural communication on the internet, entitled "Humour in Twitterstorms". 4th LAFAL conference, Lodz University, Lodz, Poland, 17.-18. March 2016. Lodz University. See <https://www.etis.ee/Portal/Publications/Display/81525d95-fe31-4341-aa72-e31518ac4d02>

The April visit of Dr Wladyslaw Chlopicki and Dr Hab Prof Dorota Brzozowska was drafted. They will come to lecture in Tartu University and Estonian Literary Museum in April/May 2016 and take part at a conference "Culinary culture" on May 2 (<http://www.folklore.ee/ri/fo/koostoo/poola/news.html>).

Liisi Laineste

Senior researcher at the Estonian Literary Museum

Tartu, April 11, 2016