

News in Brief

THE ESTONIAN FOLKLORE ARCHIVE 2024: CONTRIBUTIONS, COLLECTIONS AND FRAGMENTS ON USE

Risto Järv, Mari-Ann Remmel and Kadri Tamm write about the recipients of the Folklore Award of the President of the Republic of Estonia, presented on 11 April and provide an overview of the work of the archive in the previous year.

CONFERENCE ON ERSA AND MOKSHA LANGUAGE DAY

On 25 April the Estonian–Mordvin Association, in cooperation with the Folkloristics Department of the Estonian Literary Museum, organised an international web conference to mark worldwide Ersä and Moksha Language Day (16 April). Natalia Ermakov provides an overview.

IS ANYTHING TO BE GAINED FROM CULTURAL MIGRATION?

Sergey Troitskiy and Mare Kõiva write about the international conference held in Krakow from 28–30 April, entitled “Cultraband: An Actor–Immigrant Is Changing the Environment. How Do We Investigate the Changes and Verify the Data?”

RELIGION SCHOLARS IN PURSUIT OF DIALOGUE

Reet Hiimäe writes about the third world conference on dialogue and cooperation among religions entitled “Religion and the Contemporary Phase of Globalization: Possibilities and Challenges” held from 23–27 June in Kruševo (North Macedonia).

CALENDAR

A brief summary of the events of Estonian folklorists from April to July 2025.